Prior to entry, prospective students and their parents may be invited to attend an enrolment Interview. Our Principal and Family Enrolment Meetings are held in May/June. We invite both parent/s and/or primary carer and child to attend. Interviews go for approximately 30 minutes and are held with our Principal, Deputy Principal and Student Wellbeing Leader and is a mutual conversation with your child to determine whether School of the Good Shepherd is the right fit for your family, and an opportunity to welcome you and begin to build a relationship with the family.

4

Following the interview, you may receive a formal Offer of Enrolment. To accept the offer, you must complete and submit the relevant documents provided within two weeks, Enrolment Acceptance Forms are due back by Friday 25th June 2020

5

Once enrolment is confirmed parents will be invited to our comprehensive transition program in Term 4 for children and families. At these sessions, the children get to have a first taste of what school life is like in the classroom with their Teacher. We warmly welcome Parents to stay for morning tea and to participate in workshops, meet other families, and to share information about the start of the school year for 2022.
